ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE:

David D. Fleming
Division of Hearings and Appeals

Petitioner filed this appeal after the agency declined to add his 3 children to his FoodShare case. The agency declined to add the children to the case because they were already included in the FoodShare case of the mother. There was also an issue as to the FoodShare allotment for Petitioner as a household of one – he received a full allotment for July 2014 but only a partial for August due to a verification issue. As the hearing proceeded Petitioner indicated that he understood what happened and was withdrawing this hearing request. He did indicate that he had a family court hearing on October 9, 2014 and that could change family circumstances. That might lead to a new request to add the children. If I misunderstand the circumstances here, Petitioner should note the rehearing instructions below.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

That there is no issue remaining for Division of Hearings and Appeals resolution at this time.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That this appeal is dismissed.

REQUEST FOR A REHEARING

This is a final administrative decision. If you think this decision is based on a serious mistake in the facts or the law, you may request a rehearing. You may also ask for a rehearing if you have found new evidence which would change the decision. Your request must explain what mistake the Administrative Law Judge made and why it is important or you must describe your new evidence and tell why you did not have it at your first hearing. If you do not explain these things, your request will have to be denied.

To ask for a rehearing, send a written request to the Division of Hearings and Appeals, P.O. Box 7875, Madison, WI 53707-7875. Send a copy of your request to the other people named in this decision as "PARTIES IN INTEREST." Your request for a rehearing must be received no later than 20 days after the date of the decision. Late requests cannot be granted.

The process for asking for a rehearing is in Wis. Stat. § 227.49. A copy of the statutes can be found at your local library or courthouse.

APPEAL TO COURT

You may also appeal this decision to Circuit Court in the county where you live. Appeals must be served and filed with the appropriate court no more than 30 days after the date of this hearing decision (or 30 days after a denial of rehearing, if you ask for one).

For purposes of appeal to circuit court, the Respondent in this matter is the Department of Health Services. After filing the appeal with the appropriate court, it must be served on the Secretary of that Department, either personally or by certified mail. The address of the Department is: 1 West Wilson Street, Room 651, Madison, Wisconsin 53703. A copy should also be sent to the Division of Hearings and Appeals, 5005 University Avenue, Suite 201, Madison, WI 53705-5400.

The appeal must also be served on the other "PARTIES IN INTEREST" named in this decision. The process for appeals to the Circuit Court is in Wis. Stat. §§ 227.52 and 227.53.
